

Super Star Award Nomination Form

Altair Global Supplier Partner Awards Program

The Super Star Award for Humanitarian Commitment recognizes the Supplier who exhibits the organizational interest and discipline to have taken up a cause(s) of local, regional, national or global significance in an effort to benefit persons afflicted by poverty, hunger, civil rights infringement, social injustice or are otherwise socially marginalized. The recipient of this award will have implemented or maintained a Program/Product/Practice/Achievement contributing to the enhancement and/or public education of the importance of humanity and human dignity.

Additional Award Criteria/Consideration

A panel of judges will evaluate nominations based on the following:

- Long-term impact of the initiative at a local/regional/national/global level
- Demonstration of positive influence on others, inspiring others to take action
- Evidence of a proportionally significant contribution to a humanitarian cause, demonstrating how it has bettered the lives of others
